LOS ANGELES , CA, USA, February 14, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Embracing the spirit of love and unity, Los Angeles Trial Lawyers' Charities (LATLC) hosted a special Valentine's Day for LGBTQ+ seniors at the LA LGBT Center, bringing joy to the community's elders.

This is the second year LATLC has celebrated Valentine's Day with LA LGBT seniors with decorations, bingo, snacks (including donuts on a special donut wall!), and of course, candy. In the past, LATLC has hosted Halloween parties and other events, with the goal of fostering a welcoming environment in which members may connect, celebrate, and create lasting memories in the welcoming Senior Center at 1118 N. McCadden Place, Hollywood.

"On this Valentine's Day, the Los Angeles Trial Lawyers' Charities is honored to spread love and joy among the LGBTQ+ seniors at the LA LGBT Center. This event marks our continued commitment to fostering a supportive and inclusive environment for all members of our community. By celebrating together, we not only honor the contributions of our elders but also reinforce the bonds of unity and respect that define us. Our partnership with the LA LGBT Center underscores LATLC's dedication to making a tangible difference in the lives of those we serve, and we look forward to creating more moments like this in the future," shares Bradley Wallace, Trial Attorney and 2024 President of the LATLC.
