

NCRF Teams with HBCUs for 1st HBCU Collegiate Softball Invitational

NCRF's Student Athlete Program (SAP) hosts an inaugural 3-day event to showcase HBCU talent to the world.

ATLANTA, GA, UNITED STATES, February 14, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In its mission to spotlight HBCU sports and education, National College Resources Foundation's (NCRF) Student Athlete Program (SAP) is hosting the inaugural HBCU Collegiate Softball Invitational. The 3-day tournament begins this Friday, February 16th and runs through Sunday, February 18th at Turner Lake Sports Complex Parks & Recreation Center, 6185 Turner Lake Rd. NW, Covington, GA. 30014. Eleven games will be played Friday; twelve games on Saturday; and ending with six games on Sunday.

The HBCU Collegiate Softball Invitational will be televised on HBCU+ and is a celebration of the rich history and achievements of our HBCU athletes in sports and society. Due to NCRF's enduring partnership with the Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs), the invitational is part entertainment and part outreach as it showcases the important role these institutions of higher learning have played in our country's educational and athletic history.

We are thrilled to showcase the athletic power that exists at HBCUs and have it showcased on national TV.”

NCRF Founder and CEO, Dr. Theresa Price

Twelve of the most esteemed HBCU teams will battle it out, which includes Alabama A&M, Alabama State University, Alcorn State University, Fort Valley State University, Grambling State University, Howard University, Jackson State University, University of Maryland Eastern Shore, North Carolina A&T, North Carolina Central University, Prairie View A&M University and South Carolina State University.

"We are thrilled to showcase the athletic power that exists at HBCUs and have it showcased on national TV. At NCRF, we believe in possibilities and our enduring partnership with the HBCUs allows our SAP program to change the lives of so many of the student-athletes we serve," says NCRF Founder and CEO, Dr. Theresa Price.

All are invited - HBCU supporters or alums, passionate sports fans, student athletes, and the community.
