

The 34th Annual Flower & Garden Show at Hicks Nurseries March 7-31

Longest running show in the history of the event | Free Parking & Admission

WESTBURY, NY, UNITED STATES, February 15, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Hicks Nurseries, Long Island's premier garden center will host its 34th annual Flower & Garden Show March 7-31 with free parking and admission. The show's theme, 'Celebrations Around the World', takes inspiration from some of the most iconic and diverse cultural traditions worldwide, taking revelers from Mexico to Germany, India to China, Brazil to the United States, and more.

The Flower Show features eight distinct indoor garden displays in full bloom, planned a year in advance with meticulous preparation by the award-winning Hicks Landscapes design/build team. It's the first show in the newly renovated garden center, housed in an updated 20,000 square foot greenhouse. The production includes over 7,000 plants and 300 different varieties strategically planned to bloom at different times.

Ken Muellers, senior landscape designer at Hicks Landscapes said, "This year will be the longest running Flower Show in the history of the event, and we encourage people to attend more than once because the plants we've chosen will bloom at different times during the course of the show, making the gardens a unique experience with each visit."

In addition, a scavenger hunt will be available daily for kids of all ages offering a fun and interesting view of the gardens while adding an element of excitement to the experience. Activity sheets are offered inside the show.
