The "Best of Georgia" awards, organized by the Georgia Business Journal, highlight businesses and organizations that have made a significant impact in their respective industries. Nominees are selected based on the opinions of thousands of consumers from across the state, ensuring that only the most deserving candidates receive recognition.

Smith Hulsey Law was the only North Georgia firm to win the "Best in Georgia 2023" award for personal injury firms, further emphasizing their dedication to serving clients throughout the state.

“We were excited to earn this distinction, let alone be the only North Georgia law firm to receive this honor,” said firm partner Rustin Smith. “We thank our community and wonderful team for their hard work serving as a trusted advocate for seeking justice for Georgia’s injured.”

Based in Gainesville, attorneys at Smith Hulsey Law have an in-depth understanding of Georgia’s personal injury law. The firm serves individuals who have sustained personal injuries due to various circumstances such as car accidents, workers’ compensation, and slip and fall accidents. Their team of personal injury lawyers has secured numerous seven and eight-figure results for their clients.
