

CMTYS.com Has Successfully Completed The Pre-Seed Phase

NICOSIA, CYPRUS, February 14, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- John Fabian Peters, Founder and CEO of Betrama LTD. based in Nicosia, announces the completion of the initial private investments and the development of the prototype (named X010) in developer mode. This marks a significant milestone on the path to revolutionizing online communities.

The upcoming Seed Phase signifies a pivotal moment for CMTYS.com. The company aims to attract investors who share its vision for reshaping online communities. Under the expert leadership of John Fabian Peters and his partner Joseph M., an experienced Cybersecurity expert and CTO of CMTYS.com, intensive work on a Minimal Viable Product (MVP) will take place over the next 14 months. Additionally, plans for establishing headquarters in Nicosia or Limassol are in progress. With meticulous planning, dedication, and strategic partnerships, the CMTYS.com team is determined to give the product the finishing touch. The goal is to support administrators and community members alike with innovative solutions and an unparalleled exchange.

The team around John Fabian Peters will also be present at this year's Reflect Festival in Limassol, and naturally, wherever the tech elite convenes.

The Seed Phase is expected to be conducted through Angels (Network) and/or directly through VC's who can bring experience and capital into the company. The investment requirement for the Seed Phase has been set at approximately 800,000 Euros.

This will cover the costs for launching the MVP. The goal is to attract new investors for Series A and B with the MVP and subsequently expand internationally, with a focus on North/South America, Europe/East, the Middle East, and South Korea. First co-marketing contacts with leading gaming companies have already been conducted.
