Akraya's newly appointed Sr. VP and Chief Revenue Officer, Jason Dunham

A seasoned leader with 30 years of experience, Jason brings a proven track record of exceeding financial targets and fostering high-performing teams. He joins Akraya from AKKODIS, where he successfully led the US business transformation from Modis legacy staffing to a robust consultancy and project-based strategy. Previously, Jason spent 12 years at Experis, holding leadership roles with increasing responsibility.

Thrilled to welcome Jason, a proven leader who consistently exceeds targets! His expertise will fuel Akraya's growth & deliver outstanding client outcomes.”

Amar Panchal, CEO of AKRAYA

"Jason is a strategic business leader with a track record of consistently exceeding financial and business targets, even in complex and challenging environments," said Amar Panchal, CEO of AKRAYA. "I look forward to collaborating with him to accelerate AKRAYA's growth and delivering outstanding outcomes for our customers."

"I am delighted to join Akraya at this pivotal moment! Their unwavering commitment to empowering clients through service excellence, and their passionate focus on both clients and candidates within their best-in-class culture, is truly inspiring," said Jason Dunham. "The cohesive spirit is evident across the organization, and I am excited to contribute."

Throughout his career, Jason has consistently delivered impressive results. He has received numerous accolades, including the prestigious Top Global Sales Growth Award, and his leadership has been instrumental in fostering company turnarounds and market growth.
