This clearance marks a significant milestone for ORCA Dental and underscores its commitment to delivering innovative solutions that enhance patient care and dental practices worldwide.

The FDA clearance encompasses ORCA's groundbreaking AI technology, designed to revolutionize the way Orthodontists approach patient care. With this approval, ORCA is poised to introduce a new standard of excellence in the dental industry, empowering practitioners with advanced tools to deliver superior outcomes and improve patient satisfaction.

"We are thrilled to receive FDA clearance for our latest dental solution," said Danny Abraham, Founder and CEO of ORCA. "This achievement is a testament to our dedication to innovation and our relentless pursuit of excellence in dental and orthodontic technology. With this clearance, we look forward to empowering dental professionals with state-of-the-art tools that will help deliver better care, improve patient outcome, and increase orthodontic clinics productivity."

The newly cleared dental solution from ORCA offers a comprehensive suite of features designed to streamline dental procedures and optimize treatment outcomes.

ORCA remains committed to advancing dental care through continuous innovation, research, and development. The company's FDA clearance represents a significant validation of its efforts to bring cutting-edge solutions to the orthodontic community, ultimately benefiting both practitioners and patients alike.
