This book serves as a roadmap that will guide them through the intricate pathways toward a deeper understanding of spiritual growth.

Learning To Walk: Taking Baby Steps To Christian Maturity

Dr. Chesher's insightful exploration leads individuals back to a more enriched and fulfilling spiritual state, offering not only guidance but also the tools necessary to navigate the complexities of faith and rediscover a profound connection with one's spiritual journey. With careful consideration and practical wisdom, this book becomes a companion for those seeking a rekindling of their spiritual flame, paving the way for a more robust, enlightened, and resilient approach to Christian maturity.

"Learning To Walk: Taking Baby Steps To Christian Maturity" addresses a common oversight in Christian practice—the notion that salvation is merely the starting point, and the path to Christian maturity involves an ongoing journey of development. Dr. Chesher's insightful approach offers not just wisdom but a roadmap for individuals seeking to deepen their connection with their faith and spirituality.

The book delves into the often-overlooked intricacies of the Great Commission, emphasizing the responsibility to not only convert but also guide and nurture new believers in the teachings of Jesus. Dr. Chesher advocates for a holistic approach, urging mature Christians to mentor and support new Christians, echoing a commandment from Jesus himself.

Philomena, a reader and purchaser on Amazon, characterizes this book as a concise and rejuvenating discourse on discipleship. "This is a short and refreshing book on discipleship that offers to guide Christians from what can sometimes be called a period of drought in spiritual life", Philomena shares.

Through the pages of his book, Dr. Chesher enlightens readers on essential facets of spiritual maturity. This includes the importance of embracing biblical knowledge and its practical application in daily life, maintaining unwavering faith during life's trials, and fostering an environment of acceptance and support for new Christians, recognizing their transformation in Christ.
