

Tabitha S. King is all set to release her first heartwarming children's tale "Grayson & Wyatt's Bouquet for mom"

Embark with Grayson & Wyatt: A heartfelt journey through love, unity, and the beauty of nature, as they seek the perfect gift for Mom.

MINOT, ME, UNITED STATES, February 20, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A single mother of 2 boys and an owner of a family daycare, Tabitha S. King embarks on a new journey where she showcases her creativity and extraordinary writing skills in her first children's book to the world. The book, "Grayson & Wyatt's Bouquet for Mom," is a wonderful children's tale that takes the young on a magical journey filled with love, family, and the beauty of nature.

Tabitha King's forever passion for educating young children has helped her to change kids' lives positively. Over the years, with the help of her daycare center, she has touched children's lives and taught them how to be better in every way possible. Her daycare families have allowed her to be a part of their personal families, where she has cared for children from infancy to their preteens. It has been a remarkable journey and is something she has never taken for granted.

King dedicates this book to her inspirations, Grayson and Wyatt, her loving parents, family, and friends, and every one of her Green Apple Kids including her amazing Daycare Teachers, thanking them for their continuous support and encouragement throughout her artistic journey. "You all have been my driving force, and I am immensely grateful for your constant inspiration," she says.

In this endearing story, brothers Grayson and Wyatt set out on a special mission to make a lovely bouquet for their mother. They discover the true essence of love and togetherness as they travel through gardens and fields, encountering various flowers and exploring the wonders of nature.
