At a recent community event, League City HFA owners Jesse and Danielle Fanning displayed artwork and gifts available at their studio

For anyone looking for a fun way to de-stress and reconnect with their inner child, Hawaii Fluid Art is the place to be.

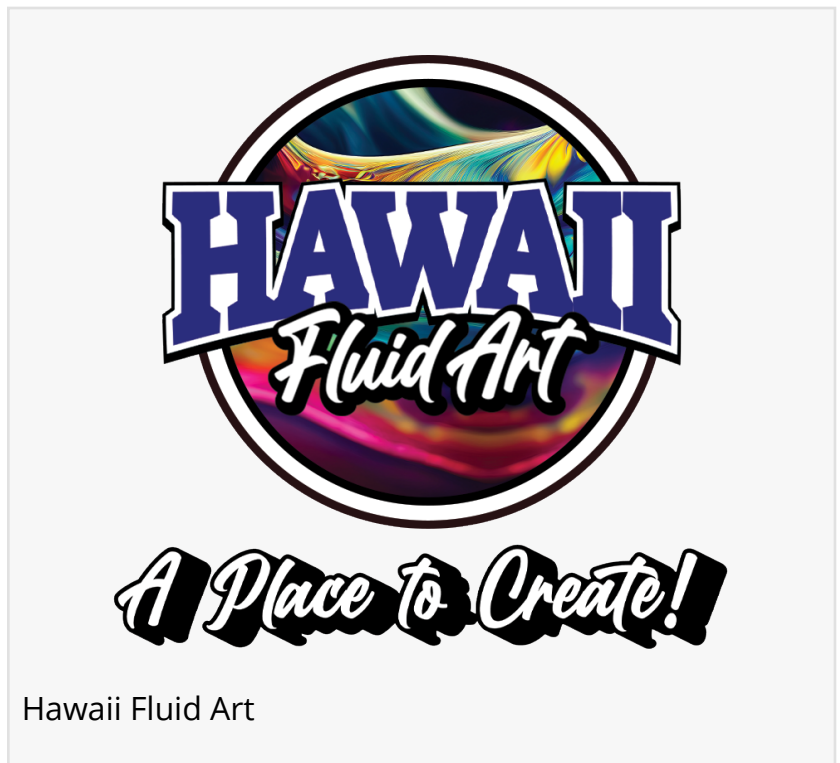

Open six days a week, Hawaii Fluid Art, League City offers art classes, retail shopping, an art gallery and more. The art classes are fun, fast, and easy, and fluid art is the perfect activity for all ages and skill levels. The studio offers classes in acrylic pour painting, resin beach scenes, resin tumblers, glass painting, patch party, mosaic resin frames and splatter painting – with regular or black light paint. Individual and group classes are available for birthday parties, corporate events, Girls' Nights Out, date nights, fundraisers, family fun nights, and team-building events.

"As busy parents of two small children, we were looking for a change of pace, and we wanted to share Hawaii Fluid Art with our local community as a gift to our Ohana (family). We love coming into work every day and creating beautiful pieces of art and seeing the look on everyone's face before and after their experience with us!", said the Fannings.

"From the moment you walk into one of our studios, you will feel loved, supported, empowered and capable," added Ratcliff.

Classes and private events can now be booked online at leaguecity.hawaiifluidart.com
Walk-ins are always welcome if no events or private parties are booked or call us anytime (346)-603-4869 for any questions.
