To qualify for the Fast 50, a company must be privately held and for-profit, with at least $1 million in annual revenue in one of the past three years. In 2023, Astute Technology Management ranked 22nd on the list. The growth rate and ranking are calculated using the company's financial information.

This recognition reflects the hard work and dedicated effort of our entire staff, who are all really proud to serve the vibrant business community here in Columbus and across Ohio.”

"Our team at Astute Technology Management is thrilled to be named as one of the Columbus area's 50 fastest-growing companies," said Eric Madden, CEO of Astute Technology Management. "This recognition reflects the hard work and dedicated effort of our entire staff, who are all really proud to serve the vibrant business community here in Columbus and across Ohio. It's great to know that our community values the work we do."

Vice President Kane Tabor was equally excited about receiving the honor. "In addition to the Columbus Fast 50 list, the company had a very productive year that exceeded our expectations. We earned a place on the Inc. 5000 list of the fastest-growing private companies in the United States. We also won one of the IT field's most prestigious awards, a place on the Channel Futures MSP 501 list. As we expand throughout Ohio, these accolades are an encouraging sign that the fundamentals of the Astute Technology Management approach, creating deep customer satisfaction by eliminating our clients' IT problems, will continue to lead to success."

For over 20 years, the Astute Technology Management team has demonstrated its commitment to delivering IT support solutions that help businesses become more stable, productive, and confident. The company's services range from managed IT support and cybersecurity to cloud solutions and IT consulting.
