

Becoming a Benefits Appointee | A Guide for Family Members from Money Carer

New 'How to' information guide for family members wishing to become a DWP appointee for a relative receiving welfare benefits.

MANCHESTER , CHESHIRE, UNITED KINGDOM, February 19, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Money Carer is an award-winning national social enterprise that provides a range of money management services for vulnerable people.

As a national partner with the Department of Work and Pensions (DWP), we are the UK's largest and most established provider of welfare benefit appointeeships. Local authorities utilise our appointeeship, deputyship, and bank account services, as well as hundreds of law firms, care providers, family members, and disability charities.

To support family members who are considering being an appointee for a relative, Money Carer has produced a guide for families to provide information and practical tips for anyone considering taking on the role and responsibilities of a welfare benefits appointee.
