

NPI Announces Citizens for Disclosure, a Grassroots UAP Transparency Initiative

The New Paradigm Institute's Citizens for Disclosure is a people's campaign that begins in local communities and ends in UAP disclosure.

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES,

February 20, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Today, the New Paradigm Institute (NPI) launched Citizens for Disclosure (CfD), a grassroots initiative to encourage the public to organize on the ground in their local communities and advocate for UAP transparency from the government.

Citizens for Disclosure is a people's campaign that begins in local communities and ends in UAP disclosure.”

“The time for excuses, opaqueness, and coverups is over. Congress can't justify continued secrecy. Congress can't say the time isn't right. The public has waited decades for the truth. If not now, when? The public deserves an honest and transparent government. Now is the time to unite in a common cause and set aside any partisan differences. Now is the time for action,” said Daniel Sheehan, Chief

Counsel of the New Paradigm Institute.

Citizens for Disclosure is designed to educate the public and mobilize concerned citizens to compel disclosure and transparency.

“We're calling on friends, families, neighbors, and communities to join us, to come together for the common good, affect change, and make the government accountable to UAP truth and transparency. Now is the time to stand up; we have a right to know,” added Sheehan.

NPI's website now features Citizens for Disclosure, where anyone around the world looking to take action, educate, and mobilize the public can sign up. NPI already has volunteers from around the country preparing to take action and is coordinating with people from Australia, Canada, France, Mexico, Spain, and the United Kingdom as international interest in government UAP transparency continues to grow.
