step forward in accessible legal education and reflects BARBRI's steadfast commitment to nurturing the next generation of paralegal and legal support professionals.

Founded in 1980 and fortified by BARBRI's compelling legacy in legal learning, CLS has redefined professional legal studies through masterful course design and delivery. With more than 150 academic partners, CLS stands out as a beacon of excellence in the field of legal education. It offers comprehensive online courses that cater to the evolving demands of the legal sector, providing unparalleled flexibility and job-readiness.

"At BARBRI, we have grown dramatically from delivering a Bar Review product to offer a full spectrum of practical legal education solutions not just for law students or lawyers, but the entire global legal industry," said Stephen Fredette, CEO at BARBRI. "Our Paralegal, Legal Nurse Consultant, and Advanced Paralegal courses are meticulously designed to ensure our students are not only well-versed in theory, but also adept in practice."

"We are thrilled to collaborate with NJIT in our shared mission to empower individuals at any stage of their careers with top-notch legal education," said Stephanie Elio, Vice President of Business Development at CLS, a BARBRI Company. "With this partnership, we strive to bring our expertise and innovation in online legal studies to a wider audience, allowing students to gain the skills and knowledge necessary to excel in the ever-evolving legal field."

NJIT's sterling record in academic prowess, demonstrated by its recognition as a top-tier educational institute with diversified programs and groundbreaking research activities, sets the stage for this collaboration. This fusion of strengths from both institutions is expected to yield unmatched educational opportunities for students aspiring to master legal intricacies.

“This new partnership allows NJIT to expand its commitment to learning and development as it continues to identify affordable education opportunities to individuals seeking to enhance their skills, advance their career, or grow professionally,” said Michael Edmondson, Ph.D., Vice President of Professional Education at the NJIT.

With learning paths that include paralegal courses and legal support courses, CLS delivers on its promise of impactful, accessible, and affordable legal education. Courses are skillfully infused with practical insights, offering direct pathways to career progression and success.
