pioneer in Digital Executive Protection and Concierge Cybersecurity & Privacy for executives and senior leaders, high-net-worth individuals, and family offices, announced a strategic partnership with FinchCyber, a renowned cybersecurity firm known for innovative approaches to protecting businesses and individuals against digital threats. The partnership aims to create a comprehensive security solution that addresses the unique challenges faced by executives, high-profile individuals, and their families.

Under the partnership, BlackCloak and FinchCyber will collaborate to offer services, providing a seamless, end-to-end personal cybersecurity and privacy protection solution. This collaboration will leverage BlackCloak's expertise in Digital Executive Protection with FinchCyber's advanced training, resilience and personal cyber defense technologies to offer protection against a wide range of digital threats, including hacking, identity theft, and online harassment.

Rob Duncan, VP of Sales at BlackCloak, expressed his enthusiasm for the partnership, stating, "This is an exciting partnership with FinchCyber, the company shares our commitment to providing top-tier personal cybersecurity solutions. This partnership is a significant milestone and underscores our dedication to expanding our services and offering our clients the most comprehensive Digital Executive Protection available."

Oliver Kersh, Founder and Managing Director from FinchCyber also commented on the partnership, highlighting the relationship between the two companies: "FinchCyber specializes in the human layer of cybersecurity, and this partnership with BlackCloak represents an exciting new chapter in our mission to protect individuals and organizations from cyber threats. By combining our resources and expertise, we can now offer an end-to-end suite of services designed to protect our clients' people, from sales teams through to key executives."

The partnership between BlackCloak and FinchCyber comes at a critical time, as high-net-worth individuals and corporate executives increasingly become targets for cybercriminals. By providing a robust solution that addresses the specific needs of this demographic, BlackCloak and FinchCyber are leading the way in personal digital security and privacy protection.
