Comintelli*

"This agreement marks an important milestone in our SaaS journey and strengthens our position in the North American market," says Jesper Martell, CEO of Comintelli. "The technology industry is a strategically important industry for us and we see a strong demand for our solution among technology companies in North America."

The customer, whose name is not being disclosed, has chosen Intelligence2day® to get a comprehensive overview of the market and to be able to make more data-driven decisions.

"We are pleased to welcome this world-leading technology company to our customer portfolio," says Jesper Martell. "They have high demands on their information management and we are proud to have been able to meet these demands."
