before the event.

"We received abundant support for the success of this event. Despite Manjeri not being a major city with easy transportation, the large number of people entering Manjeri ZilBank HQ on both the Marathon day and the previous day shows their interest and trust in us," says Sabeer.

V R Vinod - the District Collector of Malappuram, flagged off the 21 km half marathon, and U Sharafali - State Sports Council President of Kerala, flagged off the 10 km Mini Marathon, which was exclusively for women. Zil Money Chief Operating Officer Justin Timlin and Manjeri Fire Officer Paambalath Pradeep flagged off the 3 km Zil Run, which was open to all age groups.

"This event, undoubtedly, is the biggest marathon in Kerala. Witnessing numerous individuals unite for fitness and community spirit, and the success of the Malappuram Marathon 2024 brought me immense joy. I believe this marathon will help people develop a sense of a 'we' feel of community and togetherness. And I cannot overlook my Zil Money team's hard work for the success of this event. We are also aiming to organize similar events in the future, and I am confident the Malappuram Marathon will evolve into one of India's premier marathons, drawing over 100,000 participants," he added.

The Malappuram Marathon featured three categories offering appealing rewards such as cash prizes, medals, certificates, gifts, and sports kits. The Half Marathon welcomed participants aged 18 and above. Anand Krishna. K, Manoj.
