

DataArt Named to the IAOP 2024 Global Outsourcing 100®

NEW YORK, US, February 21, 2024
/EINPresswire.com/ -- DataArt, a global software engineering firm, proudly announces its recognition on the International Association of Outsourcing Professionals' (IAOP) Global Outsourcing 100® list for 2024.

DataArt

The Global Outsourcing 100, now in its eighteenth year, is a prestigious annual listing recognizing the world's top outsourcing service providers. These lists serve as indispensable resources for companies seeking to establish or expand relationships with the industry's foremost firms providing a diverse range of outsourcing services.

"We're thrilled to be recognized by the IAOP as a top player in the global outsourcing space. We are committed to tackling some of the most demanding software projects for our 400+ clients around the world and we are deeply thankful for their trust in us. As we look to the future, we're focused on laying the groundwork for future success, investing in innovation, and delivering the best solutions for our clients," said Alexei Miller, Managing Director at DataArt.

Judging is based on a rigorous scoring methodology that includes an independent review by an independent panel of IAOP customer members with extensive experience in selecting outsourcing service providers and advisors for their organizations.

"In a year characterized by significant digital disruption, the 2024 Global Outsourcing 100® underscores the remarkable success and adaptability of service providers and advisors. This year's list celebrates organizations that have not only thrived but have excelled, innovated, and set new industry standards in this new era," stated Debi Hamill, CEO of IAOP. "We extend our heartfelt congratulations to DataArt for securing a well-deserved place among the world's finest."
