Spronk Catamaran New Aruba Charter Offerings

The Rubaiyat Catamaran is the first original Peter Spronk design built for the Caribbean and is the most unique and prestigious addition to the Aruba charter boat fleet. Peter Spronk was based in St Maarten and designed and built this schooner-rigged catamaran. His grandchildren now keep his legacy alive with Spronk Catamarans and its new expansion.

Rubaiyat is a luxurious catamaran with a unique and tailored layout designed for private charters and day trips. Never overbooked, the vessel provides ample room for guests to move around and ensures comfort throughout the journey.

For those seeking a more interactive experience, there is the option of sitting on the net at the front of the boat, where they can feel the occasional refreshing spray of the Caribbean sea. Alternatively, guests can relax in the shaded cockpit while indulging in delicious drinks and snacks and enjoying the stunning views of Aruba's coastline.

Spronk Catamaran Offers New Aruba Excursions

Spronk Catamarans' new offerings in Aruba include morning and afternoon cruise options. Both are 4.5-hour sailing and snorkeling adventures, including stops at Boca Catalina and Nikki Beach. At Boca Catalina, turtles and colorful fish await visitors who snorkel and explore the Antilla Shipwreck.

A tasty BBQ meal is provided as the ship reaches Nikki Beach on the island's south side. Experienced, friendly, and knowledgeable staff members are always available to answer any questions and assist guests throughout the experience.

All Spronk Catamaran excursions end by returning to the original meeting point and are an exceptional experience from beginning to end. Spronk Catamaran excursions from Aruba deliver a luxuriously comfortable and fun-filled experience.
