SAVANNAH, GA, UNITED STATES, February 21, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Creative Coast has announced that musical artist Dacian Lovell will perform at the 2024 GRIT Conference. GRIT is the Creative Coast's annual two-day innovation event with over 20 sessions and more than 70 speakers on topics of entrepreneurship, technology, and creativity. This year's conference is happening from February 29th to March 1st at the Savannah Civic Center.

Dacian Lovell is an up-and-coming singer-songwriter and instrumentalist from Gate City, Virginia whose edgy stylings blissfully blend pop, rock, and R&B. Tracks such as "First Tyme" transport listeners to nostalgic summers and simpler times. He recently signed with Club Hous Music Co. and is releasing his first single in April.

Lovell will perform on March 1, 2024, at 4:00 PM during GRIT. His performance will follow the "The Future of Entertainment is Georgia" panel designed to showcase the dynamic progression of the entertainment industry in Georgia. The discussion will feature a diverse array of industry titans—from music producers and gaming innovators to key players in film production. These experts will share their firsthand experiences and insights into how Georgia has become a beacon of entertainment innovation.
