McClendon's leadership journey with SPI Software has been marked by numerous achievements. He has overseen the company's steady growth and expansion, successfully navigating it from a privately held business to a fully owned subsidiary of the NYSE-listed Kingsway Financial (KFS). He has nurtured, developed, and mentored a management team that averages over 20 years of industry experience. He has also been a driving force behind the development of cutting-edge software solutions that streamline operations, enhance guest experiences, and optimize profitability for timeshare operators.

  Beyond his commitment to SPI Software, McClendon has actively contributed to the overall advancement of the timeshare industry. He has served on various industry boards and committees, sharing his expertise, while advocating for ethical and sustainable practices. His dedication to collaboration and knowledge sharing has earned him the respect and admiration of his peers within the industry.

  "On behalf of the entire team at SPI Software, I extend our heartfelt congratulations to Gordon on winning this prestigious lifetime achievement award. This recognition is truly well-deserved and speaks volumes about the kind of leader you are," said Kyle Oliver, Global Vice President of Operations.

  "You're not just an innovator, Gordon; you are an inspiration. You've constantly pushed the boundaries of what's possible in our industry and have never been afraid to take risks. What truly sets you apart is your commitment to your people. You've created a corporate culture where everyone feels valued, empowered, and encouraged to excel.

Always a gentleman, you are someone we all deeply like, respect, and admire. This award is a testament to your dedication, vision, and your unwavering belief in the power of people. Thank you for all that you have done for SPI Software, and congratulations on this incredible achievement," added Oliver.

  The Lifetime Achievement Award is a reflection on McClendon's unwavering dedication to excellence and his commitment to elevating both SPI Software and the timeshare industry. SPI Software congratulates Gordon on this well-deserved recognition and looks forward to his continued leadership in shaping the future of the industry.
