

Kaon and AMT Announce Strategic Partnership to Distribute TiVo Set-Top Boxes in North America

DEERFIELD BEACH, FL, UNITED STATES, February 23, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- [Deerfield Beach, FL, 2/23/2024]

– Kaon, a leading provider of innovative digital solutions, and AMT, a prominent distributor of cutting-edge technology products, are pleased to announce their strategic partnership to distribute TiVo set-top boxes across North America.

This collaboration marks a significant milestone for both companies as they join forces to bring TiVo's state-of-the-art entertainment solutions to consumers throughout the region. With Kaon's expertise in digital technology and AMT's extensive distribution network, the partnership is poised to revolutionize the way consumers access and experience entertainment in their homes.

TiVo set-top boxes offer unparalleled features and functionality, including advanced DVR capabilities, seamless integration with streaming services, and intuitive user interfaces. By leveraging Kaon's innovative technology and AMT's robust distribution channels, consumers can expect to enjoy an enhanced entertainment experience that combines the best of traditional television with the convenience of modern streaming platforms.

"We are thrilled to partner with AMT to bring TiVo set-top boxes to consumers across North America," said Young Kang, SVP Business Development of Kaon. "This partnership represents a significant opportunity to expand TiVo's presence in the market and deliver cutting-edge entertainment solutions to our customers."

"We are excited to collaborate with Kaon to distribute TiVo set-top boxes and provide consumers with access to the latest entertainment technology," said Tom McLaughlin, CEO of AMT.

"Together, we are committed to delivering innovative solutions that enhance the way consumers enjoy their favorite content."

The partnership between Kaon and AMT will enable cable and telco operators across North America to access TiVo set-top boxes through AMT's extensive network of distribution channels. This strategic alliance demonstrates the companies' shared commitment to delivering premium entertainment solutions that elevate the consumer experience.
