"I had a great desire and curiosity to learn the personal name of the Creator of the Universe," shares Gonzalez. "Led by the Spirit of Elohim, I embarked on a journey to reveal my experiences and insights to the world, encouraging believers to explore and proclaim His Name as commanded in the Scriptures."

In "HaShem... The Name," Gonzalez sheds light on the significance of the model of Moshe/Moses, emphasizing the importance of remembering, speaking, praying to, and worshiping the divine name revealed at Mount Sinai. Through meticulous research and compelling storytelling, he invites readers to reexamine their understanding of divine identity, offering a path to spiritual insight and a deeper connection with the Creator.
