Pecos and the Rooftops

Doors will open at 6:30 p.m., with the show slated to begin at 7:30 p.m., setting the stage for a night filled with soulful Americana, gripping guitar solos, and the heartfelt lyrics that have become a hallmark of Pecos & The Rooftops' sound. Since their formation in 2019 in Lubbock, Texas, the band has swiftly risen to prominence, captivating audiences with their debut Warner Records single "5AM" and a sound that seamlessly marries the grit of classic rock with the storytelling traditions of country music.

Pecos Hurley, the band's lead vocalist and a former Marine, alongside his bandmates, has earned widespread acclaim for their deep dives into themes of heartbreak, resilience, and the journey to find redemption through music. With over 350 million global streams and a growing legion of fans, Pecos & The Rooftops are not just on a tour but on a mission to connect, inspire, and uplift.

Their performance at the 2024 Subaru Klamath County Fair is highly anticipated, following the success of their RIAA Platinum-certified hit "This Damn Song" and the critical acclaim of their Red Eye EP. As they prepare to release their major label debut LP later this year, this year's fair offers a unique opportunity to catch a glimpse of their evolving sound and electrifying live performances.
