The NAHB International Builders Show is the largest annual light construction show in the world, attracting over 70,000 attendees from more than 100 countries.

LAS VEGAS, NV, UNITED STATES, February 26, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Chris Tatge, President and Founder of DC Materials will be sharing his expertise and insights at the 2024 National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) International Builders Show in Las Vegas. Tatge will be speaking and hosting two presentations covering the topic of offsite construction building, and showcasing how it can be applied to multi-home and commercial projects.

DC Materials provides quality supply and framing solutions for multifamily and commercial projects.

The NAHB International Builders Show is the largest annual light construction show in the world, attracting over 70,000 attendees from more than 100 countries. This year's show, taking place from February 27-29 at the Las Vegas Convention Center will feature over 1,400 exhibitors showcasing the latest products and technologies in the construction industry.

Tatge's unique boots on the ground expertise in construction, combined with successful business leadership make him a highly sought-after speaker in the industry. Before leading DC Materials into one of America's fastest growing companies, Tatge worked as a hands on framing contractor for over 25 years. Today he is grateful to lead the stage and share about the benefits of offsite components in construction projects, and showcase how the process helps increase efficiency, improve job site performance, and reduce waste.

"I am thrilled to be presenting at IBS. Who better than the framer to talk about ways to build better and faster. I am looking forward to connecting with my peers and industry leaders as we continue to move offsite components forward and help them stay ahead of the curve in the ever-evolving construction industry," shared Tatge.

Tatge's presentations will take place on February 27th and 29th at the Las Vegas Convention Center. IBS Attendees can register for the show and add Tatge's sessions to their schedule on the NAHB International Builders Show website. Don't miss this opportunity to learn from one of the industry's top leaders and gain valuable insights on achieving higher performance in the construction industry.
