

Martha Stokes, CMT of TechniTrader to Speak at MetaStock Traders Conference on Leading Hybrid Indicators

COVINGTON, WA, UNITED STATES, February 28, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Martha Stokes, CMT, renowned trading mentor and co-founder of TechniTrader, will be presenting at the upcoming MetaStock Traders Conference on Thursday, February 29, 2024 at 11 am ET. The conference, which will be held virtually, will feature industry experts sharing their insights and strategies for successful trading. Ms. Stokes' presentation, titled "Accelerate Your Indicator Analysis," will provide valuable knowledge and techniques for traders of all levels.

During her presentation, Ms. Stokes will share her expertise on hybrid indicators, a combination of multiple indicators that provide a more accurate and comprehensive view of the market. She will specifically focus on how these indicators can expose where the Dark Pools, large institutional investors, are accumulating stocks and when Pro Traders are setting up for potential momentum ahead of High-Frequency Trading (HFT) triggers. This information can give traders an edge in their decision-making process and help them stay ahead of market movements.

In addition to discussing hybrid indicators, Ms. Stokes will also address common mistakes that traders make when choosing indicators. With over 20 years of experience in the financial industry, she has seen firsthand the pitfalls that traders often fall into when selecting indicators. Ms. Stokes will provide valuable insights on how to avoid these mistakes and choose the most effective indicators for successful trading.

Attendees of the MetaStock Traders Conference will have the opportunity to see TechniTrader's indicators built for MetaStock charting software in action during this webinar. TechniTrader, a leading provider of educational resources and tools for traders, has developed a unique set of
