The symposium will bring together national, state, and local experts to discuss what states, localities, and employers can do to address the challenges of withholding tax for remote (including hybrid) workforces and the revenue impact to Ohio's municipalities as individuals routinely work outside the office. The discussion will summarize statutory, case law, and administrative developments with an emphasis on identifying best practices for governments, employers, and employees to respond to changing conditions. Tom Zaino, Managing Member of Zaino Hall & Farrin LLC (ZHF), will discuss the impact of the recent Ohio Supreme Court decision in Schaad v. Alder, 2024-Ohio-525.
