March 2022, Evonik Industries commercially launched EUDRATEC Fasteric used for enteric fortification and prompt release in the upper smaller intestine, which is a platform of oral drug delivery technology directly over the released target. This product development improved the biocompatibility, safety, and performance of implantable products used by medical device customers and further strengthened Evonik’s growth.

September 2022, DSM announces a collaboration with PBC Biomed, a medical device design and development company to jointly design and develop novel materials for medical devices. Initially, the agreement will focus on the development of bone adhesives through PBC Biomed’s affiliate, Biomimetic Innovations, which could help to meet the need for safer, less invasive surgical procedures that are also more cost-effective.

Middle East and Africa

Important Countries In All Regions Are Covered.

Biomaterials Market, By Geography

The Biomaterials Market by region includes North America, Asia-Pacific (APAC), Europe, South America, and Middle East & Africa (MEA).

North America: includes the US, Canada, Mexico

Asia Pacific: includes China, Japan, South Korea, India, Australia, ASEAN, and Rest of APAC

Europe: includes the UK, Germany, France, Italy, Spain, Russia, and the Rest of Europe

South America: includes Brazil, Argentina, and Rest of South America

Middle East & Africa: includes Turkey, UAE, Saudi Arabia, South Africa, and the Rest of MEA

Study Objectives of this report are:

To study and analyse the global s market size (value and volume) by company, key regions/countries, products and application forecast to 2030.

To understand the structure of Biomaterials market by identifying its various sub segments.

To share detailed information about the key factors influencing the growth of the market (growth potential, opportunities, drivers, industry-specific challenges and risks).

Focuses on the key global Biomaterials manufacturers, to define, describe and analyse the sales volume, value, market share, market competition landscape, SWOT analysis and development plans in next few years.

To analyse the Biomaterials with respect to individual growth trends, future prospects, and their contribution to the total market.

To project the value and volume of Biomaterials submarkets, with respect to key regions (along with their respective key countries).

To analyse competitive developments such as expansions, agreements, new product launches, and acquisitions in the market.

To strategically profile the key players and comprehensively analyse their growth strategies.
