When asked about his new role, Harrell expressed excitement for the future.

"I'm happy to be joining CAMS and eager to explore the opportunities available in the eastern NC market," said Harrell. "CAMS is an industry leader and already has a great team in place, and it is my intention to build on that foundation to help foster growth."

As regional vice president, Harrell will oversee all area managers and work closely with the business development team to provide local expertise and promote regional growth. He will implement quality improvement initiatives, assist with employee recruiting efforts, and build and maintain positive relationships with clients and vendors.

CAMS Senior Vice President of Association Management, Ben Rhodes, CMCA®, AMS®, PCAM®, is thrilled to see Harrell step into his new role.

"We're excited for Kevin to join the CAMS team," said Rhodes. "His level of expertise and experience with executive-level leadership will bring a fresh perspective to the HOA management industry and our clients."
