

Christenson Transportation Announces Key Leadership Changes

Christenson Transportation, a leading player in the transportation industry, is proud to announce the promotion of three key individuals within the company.

STRAFFORD, MO, UNITED STATES,
February 28, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/

-- Christenson Transportation, a leading player in the transportation industry, is proud to announce the promotion of three key individuals within the company. These promotions are a testament to the exceptional leadership skills, dedication, and outstanding contributions of these professionals to the growth and success of the company.

We are thrilled to announce the promotions are part of the first phase in Christenson's ambitious growth plans for 2024."

*President and CEO of Christenson Transportation,
Don Christenson.*

The first promotion is of Brian Hazzard to Chief Operating Officer. Brian has been with Christenson Transportation for over four years. Hazzard started as Operations Manager and later assumed the role of Director of Operations and Brokerage. Brian has played a pivotal role in building a sales team from the ground up. His keen strategic insights and ability to drive operational efficiency has significantly contributed to the company's growth and success during his tenure.

The second promotion is Alexandria Menzel to Director of Accounting. Alex joined Christenson Transportation in 2020 as a Senior Accountant and quickly received a promotion to Assistant Controller. Her tremendous ability to produce high-quality work in an accurate and organized fashion has proven extremely beneficial to the company over the last few years.

The third promotion is for Dr. Ethan Slaughter to Chief Financial Officer. Ethan has been with Christenson Transportation for five years. In addition to his accounting expertise, Ethan has extensive experience in leadership development stemming from his doctoral work at Indiana Wesleyan University (IWU). Dr. Slaughter is a leading authority in building virtuous leadership traits that drive ethical, moral, and multi-framed decision-making and behavior at individual and organizational levels. Given Ethan's accounting and finance experience, vast knowledge base, and wise approach to personal and professional development, we are confident he will shine as CFO.

"We are thrilled to announce these promotions are part of the first phase in Christenson's ambitious growth plans for 2024 and beyond. The promotions of Brian, Alex, and Ethan have consistently demonstrated exceptional leadership skills, dedication, and outstanding contributions to the company. We are confident that they will continue to excel in their new roles and contribute to the growth and success of our company," said President and CEO of Christenson Transportation, Don Christenson.

These promotions reflect Christenson Transportation's commitment to recognizing and rewarding the hard work and dedication of its employees. The company looks forward to the continued growth and success of these individuals and the entire team.

Kimberly Crites
Christenson Transportation
4178931656 ext.
Kimberlyc@christensontrans.com

Visit us on social media:

Facebook

Twitter

LinkedIn

Instagram

YouTube

TikTok

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/692066106>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2024 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.