“The Neahr accounting firm” was established by my father over 40 years ago. He worked for a large corporation for many years as an esteemed chartered accountant. When the right time came, he set up his own firm to provide better personalized tax services for individuals as well as small and medium-sized businesses, since then I have followed in his footsteps and expanded the business to provide tax services in Brampton, Durham region and the GTA. I pride myself on being able to provide excellent skill in corporate taxes, small business and estate taxes. Pleasing my clients is of utmost importance to me”, mentioned Robert Neahr on his website to brief his firm's history and expertise.

Rhaven Inc. one of the firm's clients wrote “I am thankful I found Rob's firm to handle our financials, and I cannot recommend their services highly enough. Rob's expertise swiftly untangled complex discrepancies and honestly this is really the first stress-free year for filing our business and personal taxes. Awesome work Rob!”. And the other mentioned, “I called Rob for the first time earlier in 2023 for my small business and personal taxes and he was very professional, helpful and informative! He did both my taxes and my partner's taxes for a great price. We're very happy and I absolutely recommend him to anyone looking for a personal or small business accountant. We'll be using him as long as he remains in business!”.

Neahr accounting firm is currently welcoming new clients and looks forward to addressing your past and present tax related concerns.
