Featuring a tasting of nine old and modern Carcavelos wines, including the oldest vintage dating back to 1906, wine connoisseurs from across Europe experienced a journey through time and taste, guided by the expertise of wine expert Rudolfo Tristao from ESHTe.

“

What a pleasure to try this wonderful fortified wines, even after 120 years a fresh and vivid taste, spectacular! It shows the storage and ageing possibility of this rare treasure Vinho de Carcavelos”

Jorg Lewerenz

The highlight of the event was a bottle of Quinta d´Algoa from 1906, still surprisingly fresh and vivid. It showcased the storage and aging possibilities of these wines. Another milestone was the unveiling of Quinta da Corrieira's newest masterpiece - Colheita 2012. This revelation marked a historic moment, as it was the first time in over 20 years that a private company had produced one of these exceptional treasures. This exclusive addition to the lineup further elevated the experience, capturing the essence of tradition and innovation in Carcavelos wine production.

As the organizers of this extraordinary event, the new Corrieira Wine Club reaffirmed its commitment to providing access to the finest Carcavelos wines. Through their website, www.corrieira.com, they offer the most comprehensive selection available for purchase and shipping throughout Europe, ensuring enthusiasts can enjoy these exceptional wines wherever they may be.
