David Arkenstone, Composer/Multi-instrumentalist

"An Evening with David Arkenstone" will debut live for Southern California "Darkening Skies" from Winterlüde, a winter-themed album inspired in part by David's travels through the majestic snow-covered mountain towns of Colorado. "With this recording," says David, "I set out to capture the feelings I get when winter comes around. It's an idealized winter to be sure, but I wanted to illustrate some of the moods that come over me during this unique time. It seems to me the earth is more quiet and there's more time for reflection and contemplation. These songs are like chapters in a book, with each sound painting embodying a characteristic or mood that is meaningful during this magical season." Winterlüde remained the #1 Hot New Release on Amazon for many weeks and hit #1 on the NACC Chill Charts.

The year 2024 will once again showcase David Arkenstone's ability to create captivating musical experiences for fans. Adding to his list of recent achievements, David's live album David Arkenstone & Friends - LIVE! released earlier this year.

World of Warcraft gamers will experience David's compositions, as he is contributing scores to the 2024 World of Warcraft expansion WorldSoul Saga. Visionary David Arkenstone continues to push boundaries and explore new musical territories. Fans can look forward to two upcoming releases, memorable touring performances in late 2024, and the furtherance of a legacy that continues to shape the New Age music landscape.
