However, addressing all time zones and accommodating students' diverse needs with only two information sessions poses a challenge. The school has received feedback from prospective students unable to attend due to scheduling conflicts or those seeking a slower-paced explanation, particularly non-native English speakers. Consequently, the school opted to release a YouTube video of the initial information session to broaden accessibility and allow more individuals to experience the allure and ambiance of AOJ Language School.

In the video, the school explains about AOJ Language School, its curriculum, school schedule, course outline, enrollment information and enrollment campaign. They will also answer questions directly from participants at the information session. Those who watch the information session video are always welcome to ask questions via e-mail or inquiry form posted on our website.

Please refer to their website for detailed information and application for admission. Requests for information materials and questions about the school can also be made through the website.
