Regional Analysis:

The region-wise coverage of the market is mentioned in the report, mainly focusing on the regions:

North America held the largest share and is anticipated to continue to dominate over the projected period. This is due to the continual advancements in autonomous delivery robots, which prompted several pilot initiatives in the area. For instance, in May 2022, Uber Eats, a division of Uber Technologies, Inc., carried out two autonomous delivery projects in Los Angeles in association with the robotic sidewalk delivery startup Serve Robotics and the autonomous vehicle technology business Motional.

This is expected to stimulate regional market expansion. The forecast period is likely to have the greatest CAGR in Asia Pacific. The continued advancement of autonomous last-mile delivery in nations like China and Japan is a key driver of the region's expansion. Moreover, the expansion of the area is being fueled by the presence of major businesses that provide AI solutions and the rising interest in such technology among commercial organizations.
