“

I am pleased to welcome Mark Hogan to join Ingantec. Mark brings decades of expertise in economic development, finance and corporate governance and will be a tremendous asset to our Board.”

Dr. Alan S. Yeung

Hogan has extensive experience in the banking industry with almost four decades at Marshall & Ilsley Bank (M&I) and later BMO Harris Bank. He retired in 2010 as M&I's executive vice president and chief credit officer before signing on to serve as senior adviser to BMO Harris Bank. Mark was then appointed by Wisconsin Governor Scott Walker to serve as Secretary & CEO of the Wisconsin Economic Development Corp. (WEDC), a position he held until September of 2019.

Mark is currently a director of Ixonia Bancshares, Chorus Community Health Plan (part of Children's Wisconsin), m2

Equipment Finance LLC, and Ingantec Corporation as well as a member of Wangard Partners' advisory board. Past civic and board affiliations include the Wisconsin Housing & Economic Development Authority, Children's Wisconsin, the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, as well as Cristo Rey Jesuit, Divine Savior Holy Angels, and Marquette University High Schools.

Mark is a 1977 graduate of the University of Notre Dame and earned his MBA degree from Marquette University. He and his wife, Janet, reside in Wisconsin and have three adult children and four grandchildren.
