Full Synopsis:

The Girl in the Palms is the story of a young woman at a crossroads in her life. The bitterness of a New York winter has turned Luna's body and soul cold. The memories brought back by bare lifeless trees under an ominous grey sky become the bars of her grief filled prison. It's time for a radical shift, a complete change of perspective. From far North to far South, dark to light, known to the unknown. Luna leaves everything she knows behind and rides her thumb to Florida. She is surrounded by the wonder of a tropical Christmas. Like a modern day Alice in Wonderland she meets a plethora of characters and follows her heart on illuminating adventures that inform her quest for self-actualization. What is real and what is fantasy diverge with the ultimate destination only known within. From the hippie hideaways of the Everglades to a psychic village, to the ocean and all the way to the edge of the United States, Girl in the Palms is a technicolor female odyssey.
