Wealth Preservation Summit Takes Place Apr. 5 in West Palm Beach, Hosted by Eric Bolling & Allegiance Gold

Attendees will gain actionable insights on protecting and growing their wealth through physical gold and silver in a diversified portfolio. They'll also preview our new premium gold & silver coins.”

Alex Ebkarian, COO and Co-Founder of Allegiance Gold

“At our signature Wealth Preservation Summit, investors will gain actionable insights on including physical gold and silver in a diversified portfolio,” says Alex Ebkarian, COO and Co-Founder of Allegiance Gold, which ranks 749th in Inc. 5000's 2023 list of the fastest-growing, privately-held, for-profit domestic companies and 46th in its list of fastest growing financial services firms in the United States. “We are also thrilled to give attendees exclusive access to our new premium gold and silver coins, which will soon be available for purchase via our new E-shop. Besides being eligible for self-directed IRAs and 401(K) rollover accounts, our coins serve as legacy gifts to pass onto heirs and future generations.”

This special event features a discussion between Bolling and Ebkarian, who will address timely geopolitical and economic factors, including the upcoming U.S. elections, keeping the price of gold high for the near and long term, and why the present moment is an important time for investing in precious metals. They will also discuss the de-dollarization movement led by the BRICS Plus nations, which aims to minimize dependence on the U.S. dollar and establish a new global currency, as well as issues contributing to a weakening of the dollar.

This free event will take place at the Hilton West Palm Beach on Friday, April 5 from 10 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. For event details and to RSVP, visit WealthProtectionSummit.com or call (844) 790-9191.
