Robert Johnstone

"At Caremark, we understand the importance of personalised care that respects the dignity and independence of each individual," says Robert Johnstone, MD at Caremark Cambridge & South Cambridgeshire. "Our goal is not only to provide essential support with daily tasks but also to foster a sense of belonging and inclusion within the community."

Caremark Cambridge & South Cambridgeshire offers a comprehensive range of home care services, including live-in care, dementia care, palliative care, and assistance with personal care. Additionally, the organisation provides respite care and support with day-to-day domestic activities, ensuring that elderly residents have access to the assistance they need to thrive.

"We pride ourselves on exceeding expectations and going above and beyond to meet the needs of our clients," says Robert Johnstone, MD. "Whether it's helping with medication management, providing companionship, or assisting with mobility, our dedicated team is committed to delivering compassionate care that enhances the lives of those we serve."

One of the key benefits of choosing Caremark Cambridge & South Cambridgeshire is the organisation's commitment to safety and peace of mind for clients and their families. All home carers undergo enhanced DBS checks and rigorous training, ensuring that they are fully equipped to provide the highest standard of care. Additionally, Caremark is registered with the Care Quality Commission, providing further assurance of the organisation's dedication to maintaining the highest standards of care.

"Our focus is on building long-lasting, professional relationships between our carers and clients," says Robert Johnstone, MD. "By matching each client with a few dedicated carers and prioritising continuity of care, we strive to create a supportive environment where individuals can feel comfortable and secure in their own homes."

For elderly residents in Cambridge and South Cambridgeshire, Caremark offers a lifeline of support, enabling them to age gracefully in the comfort of their own homes. With a commitment to excellence, compassion, and personalised care, Caremark Cambridge & South Cambridgeshire is the premier choice for those seeking the highest quality home care services.
