The British Psychological Society is recognized worldwide as the gold standard of psychological associations. It conducts a rigorous assessment validation process to verify the content, construct, and criterion validity of psychological tests. BPS has certified that the English language version of the Mercer | Mettl Personality Map has met the technical criteria established by the European Standing Committee on Tests and Testing of the European Federation of Psychologists Association.

Siddhartha Gupta, CEO of Mercer | Mettl, said, "The BPS's certification reinforces the trustworthiness and relevance of our assessment inventory, affirming our unwavering pursuit of excellence in psychometric evaluation."

MPM is a globally recognized personality test that revolutionizes talent assessments by providing a comprehensive, ethical, and accurate evaluation of an individual's personality at work. It has been utilized by over 100 Fortune 500 companies across various stages of the employee life cycle, including hiring, learning and development, high potential identification, and succession planning. MPM is used by top companies in over 100 countries and in 20 languages.

Rob Bailey, Mercer | Mettl's Global Head of Research, emphasized the significance of BPS's

thorough review of the Mercer | Mettl Personality Map, stating, "This validation not only affirms the precision of MPM but also reinforces Mercer | Mettl's dedication to upholding the highest standards of assessment quality."

Mercer | Mettl's certification from the BPS strengthens its position as a trusted partner for organizations seeking to make data-driven talent decisions.
