Vipers), Cologne Hunter (DC Destroyers), and Marshall Kaufman (Philly Smoke).

Team Combat League's highly anticipated season will commence with an electrifying match-up pitting the reigning Season 1 Champions NYC Attitude against the Philly Smoke on March 28, 2024, starting at 7:30PM at the 2300 Arena, 2300 South Swanton Street, Philadelphia PA 19148.

About Dewey Cooper:

Dewey Cooper brings approximately four decades of combat sports experience to Team Combat League. While fighting in amateur kickboxing and karate tournaments, he won over 20 championships and 2 amateur titles – compiling a record of 123-15-3. He turned professional in 1996 and went on to have a break-out year in 2000 when he won both World Heavyweight and Cruiserweight Championships. After making a name for himself racking up a record of 15-2 and winning additional national titles, he was recruited by the world's premier kickboxing organization where he gained worldwide recognition en route to a 49-17-3 record. Cooper also compiled a 19-3-3 professional boxing record and twice competed for a Cruiserweight Championship. He was inducted into the Masters of Martial Arts Hall of Fame and is an accomplished combat sports trainer having coached his disciples to 9 world titles.

About Team Combat League:

Team Combat League events feature 24 rounds of non-stop action with individual boxers competing across a series of eight weight classes. Unlike traditional boxing, each boxer on a Team's roster competes in either 1 or 2 rounds within a tournament format. At the conclusion of each Team Combat League event, the Team with the most points is declared the winner.
