Sean James, a celebrity hairstylist represented by Aim Artists, showcased his exceptional skills at the Oscars. Working at the renowned Matthew Preece Salon in Santa Monica, Sean James has become a go-to hairstylist for high-profile clients seeking red-carpet perfection.

Sean James utilized an array of top-quality products to achieve Jamie Lee Curtis' breathtaking hairstyles. The look began with the Giovanni Cosmetics Ultra Volume Foam Styling Mousse, which provided the hair with grip and texture. Sean James then combined this with the Super Potion Styling Booster, using his trusted FHI Heat Blowdryer, "The Innovator," to create a flawless foundation. The FHI Heat Blowdryer, known for its exceptional performance and compact design, allowed Sean James to achieve the desired result efficiently.

Using his signature technique, Sean James employed a small 1-inch brush, affectionately named "Jamie's Brush," to create small, textured sausages that added depth and dimension to the hairstyle. The combination of careful styling and the holding power of the Giovanni Cosmetics Ultra Volume Big Body Hairspray ensured that Jamie's hair remained in place throughout the evening.

Alongside Sean James' hairstyling expertise, the talented Grace AHN flawlessly executed Jamie Lee Curtis' makeup. Her stylist, Jane Ross, ensured that every detail of Jamie's look, including her stunning Dolce & Gabbana dress and jewelry by Cathy Waterman, was meticulously coordinated.
