

Kingdom Winds and Leah Outten Release “The Sixteenth Year”—A Powerful Book on Unplanned Pregnancy and Adoption

Leah’s Powerful New Memoir Extends Her Mission to Provide Inspiration, Encouragement, and Hope to Others

GREENVILLE, SOUTH CAROLINA, UNITED STATES, March 14, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Kingdom Winds Publishing is pleased to announce the release of The Sixteenth Year — a powerful memoir by Leah Outten, a well-known and popular voice in the adoption community. The book has received rave reviews, with many readers expressing how it offered inspiration, encouragement, and hope.

Fueled by her personal experiences which she details in the book, Leah has devoted her life to helping, encouraging, supporting, and advising others as a writer, speaker, coach, and advocate. In addition to being a contributing writer for and featured guest on Focus on the Family, she has also been featured on national platforms such as Epoch Times, LiveAction, and HuffPost.

Tori Shaw, President of They Are Not Forgotten, and author of I Had A Secret For Seventeen Years and Free Indeed offered, “Leah is an inspiration to everyone she encounters. She is talented, authentic, and passionate.”

This shows through in her new book as Leah beautifully shares her testimony with authenticity and vulnerability to help others. She explains, “The Sixteenth Year follows not only my pregnancy and adoption story but is my testimony of how God has used these pieces of my life to heal, grow, and now help others. Within these pages is my path toward authentic healing to be able to walk in freedom, not victimhood.”

One Amazon reviewer wrote, “This book is a beautiful story of how the hardships the author went through were used for good by God. The book is well written. A MUST READ for anyone connected to adoption - adoptee, birth mom, or those who work with or are related to them.”

The Sixteenth Year is a powerful new book by Leah Outten.

Many readers have described the book as a beautiful story that is beautifully told. One reviewer wrote, “Leah is an incredible storyteller, and I experienced so many emotions as I devoured this book. This story is a gift to anyone who needs redemption and desires to extend grace to others.”

Amy Ford, Embrace Grace President and Help Her Be Brave author, endorsed the book, saying, “The Sixteenth Year is a powerful book of a birth mom’s brave journey to choose to place her baby for adoption. Not only will you be inspired by Leah’s personal story, you will hear a refreshingly honest perspective of her adoption process beginning from pregnancy, through birth and leading to her bond with her teenage daughter today. Leah’s courage is contagious!!”
