Children's Podcast, Peace, Love and Cupcakes, to Launch with GoKidGo, K Factor Films and Bercy Talent Management

New narrative podcast series, Peace, Love and Cupcakes, based on the bestselling children's book and award-winning Off-Broadway musical of the same name, is launching May 14, 2024 as part of the GoKidGo audio universe. New original episodes of the podcast will release weekly and will be available on all podcasting platforms including Apple, Spotify, Stitcher, iHeart Radio, Pandora, and others. Executive produced by K Factor Films, Bercy Talent Management and Sheryl Berk in partnership with GoKidGo, the podcast will be scripted by the book's creator, New York Times Bestselling author Sheryl Berk. Berk is a celebrity ghostwriter and editor who has collaborated with Britney Spears, Zendaya, Derek Hough and others, and co-authored Soul Surfer which was adapted into a major motion picture. The series theme song is composed by Broadway notable Rick Hip-Flores, who created the musical's original score.

About the Podcast:

This new, serialized dramatization especially for young listeners ages 6-12 will explore topical themes of friendship, family, girl power, bullying and so much more. "We are so excited to bring Peace, Love and Cupcakes to a whole new audience of young podcast listeners with GoKidGo," says Berk. "These characters have always leaped off the page, and this takes their adventures to a whole new level of fun."

"Peace, Love and Cupcakes is such a special project because it will empower young kids everywhere to follow their dreams with confidence, passion, and gusto," adds K Factor Films founder Niki Koss. "I wish it existed when I was young."

About K Factor Films: Founded by Niki Koss who was recently recognized in LA Weekly as one of their "Top 10 Game Changing Innovators in Entertainment" and noted in Forbes 30 Under 30.
