

cloudEQ ranks above competition for Best Engineering Teams and Best Company Outlook in 2024

cloudEQ added 2 new awards to the shelf this quarter from Comparably.com

CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES, March 19, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ --

cloudEQ's Company Outlook not only ranks above competitors in its category but also stands out with gender (top 25%) and diversity scores (top 10%), signifying the company's upward trajectory as a powerhouse organization that remains rooted in emotional intelligence, essential for building and maintaining a strong team dynamic.

This remarkable achievement underscores the commitment of cloudEQ to nurturing an inclusive and supportive work environment. It's evident from the results of an internal survey where an overwhelming 99% of employees expressed pride in being part of the company.

The Engineering department's performance surpasses that of competitors, securing a spot on the prestigious list of Best Engineering Teams for 2024 by Comparably. Impressively, 98% of cloudEQ employees eagerly anticipate collaborating with their coworkers, highlighting the cohesive and positive atmosphere within the team.

The emphasis on emotional intelligence within the Engineering team translates into tangible benefits for clients; by genuinely listening to customers, the team can effectively address their needs and deliver solutions that exceed expectations. This accolade reaffirms the company's commitment to fostering a culture of employee satisfaction and collective success, characterized by excellence, positivity, and inclusivity.

These recent honors add to cloudEQ's impressive array of awards, including Best CEO 2023, Best Company Culture 2023, and Best Company for Diversity 2023. The consistent A+ culture rating, based on thousands of ratings from current employees, coupled with one of the lowest turnover rates in the industry, underscores the fulfillment and motivation experienced by team members, reinforcing their dedication to cloudEQ's mission and vision.
