

Acclaimed Indie Feature, DARK FEATHERS: Dance of the Geisha to open in limited USA Theatrical Release August 2, 2024

Award-winning festival-favorite to expand release to additional major markets after initial launch in New York, Los Angeles and San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, CA, USA, March 14, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The mysterious and intriguing

It's been twenty years since 'Memoirs of a Geisha' and we think that this film delivers a fresh look into a modern incarnation of some of these ancient practices.”

Eric Parkinson, HHSE C.E.O.

practices of the Japanese Geisha have mesmerized audiences and fueled curiosity for centuries. Although now practiced by only a few thousand in Japan, the impact of the Geisha culture has continued to influence traditionalists worldwide.

“Dark Feathers: Dance of the Geisha” is an acclaimed independent feature that lifts the veil of secrecy surrounding modern practitioners of these traditional arts – mesmerizing beauties with skills ranging from singing and dancing, to legendary rumors of specialized love-making techniques.

Produced and co-directed by leading lady Crystal J. Huang, the film was shot in San Francisco Bay Area and Los Angeles, with stunning cinematography. Other leading actors including dance stars Gilles Marini and Karina Smirnoff, along with veteran film star Michael Madsen and an ensemble of talented dancers and actors. Hannover House (OTC: HHSE) has been engaged to handle the marketing, publicity and booking of theatres for the film – with an initial release date set for August 2, 2024 in New York, Los Angeles and San Francisco. An expansion of theatrical markets is planned for late August, with a Video-On-Demand and Home Media window opening in mid-September.

"We are excited to present this film to theatres and audiences," said Eric Parkinson, C.E.O. of Hannover House. "It's been twenty years since 'Memoirs of a Geisha' and we think that this film delivers a fresh look into a modern incarnation of some of these ancient practices."
