A New Era for Kitchen Renovations

The warehouse will serve as a central hub for the distribution of universal frameless cabinet carcasses, along with the popular Lunar White Shaker, Lunar Grey Shaker, and Lucca Flat Panel collections. This initiative reflects the company's dedication to offering a diverse range of styles that cater to the evolving tastes and preferences of its customers.

"Our new warehouse and Design Center signifies a pivotal step forward in our quest to redefine the kitchen cabinet industry," said Josh, COO of Best Online Cabinets. "By making our latest collections more accessible and providing a space for customers to experience our products firsthand, we're elevating the standard for convenience and personalized service in the market."

Design Center: Bridging Creativity and Expertise

Located within the new warehouse, the Design Center is poised to become a creative sanctuary for customers. The showroom allows visitors to immerse themselves in the quality and design of various cabinet styles. Moreover, the Design Center offers personalized design consultations, where experienced professionals help customers craft custom kitchen layouts that align with their individual needs and visions.

"We recognize that designing a kitchen can be a daunting task. Our Design Center aims to demystify this process, offering tangible experiences and expert advice to assist our customers in realizing their dream kitchens," stated Anthony, Director of Customer Experience at Best Online Cabinets.

Open to the Public

The showroom and office welcome homeowners, contractors, and designers to discover the latest trends in kitchen cabinets and design services. The Design Center is designed to cater to both online and local customers, providing a cohesive and integrated shopping experience.
