Majority Leader Schumer was instrumental in co-sponsoring the UAP Disclosure Act (UAPDA), a bipartisan amendment to the FY 2024 National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA). Schumer's amendment would have enacted a "Controlled Disclosure Campaign Plan," under which our government would have revealed to the public "as much as possible" what the government knows about the UAP phenomenon without jeopardizing national security. Unfortunately, much of the bipartisan UAPDA was removed from the final legislation.

Oswaldo Franco, Lead Organizer for Citizens for Disclosure NOW: "The next great civil rights movement is the right to know; the right to know what's out there, what opportunities, what mysteries, and what this knowledge means for our destiny as a species. The right to know is why we are here, to thank Majority Leader Schumer for his advocacy and to request his continued support for the truth."
