Empowering Global Creativity for Sustainable

Development

At the heart of the Genetic Genuine Generation challenge is a call to arms for innovators, visionaries, and reformists to bring forth ideas that drive societal behaviors toward sustainability and equity. CI emphasizes the inclusion of diverse demographics, particularly those with disabilities and the unemployed, in contributing transformative solutions for an innovative future.

Fostering Diversity and Inclusion in Innovation Recognizing the indispensable value of diverse perspectives, the challenge is designed to be an inclusive platform. It celebrates and prioritizes voices from underrepresented sectors, including individuals with disabilities and the unemployed, underscoring their vital role in driving towards a fairer and more sustainable tomorrow.

Rewarding Contributions to Global Change

The challenge distinguishes itself by offering substantial rewards to participants, including:

Innovation Grant: Grants of $1,000 and $500 are allocated to help winners develop and actualize their pioneering ideas. This gesture is also an open invitation for potential sponsors to contribute to a noble cause. Mentorship Program: Selected participants will gain access to mentorship from industry experts, facilitating the refinement and advancement of their proposals. Audience Award: A prize of $500, coupled with global recognition through a feature in an international campaign, awaits the idea deemed most impactful by public vote. Acknowledging Every Voice CI is committed to valuing each participant's effort, evidenced by the issuance of a Certificate of
