

Ronna Wineberg receives national recognition through the INDEPENDENT PRESS AWARD®

GLEN RIDGE, NEW JERSEY, UNITED STATES, March 21, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The INDEPENDENT PRESS AWARD, one of the most prestigious book award programs for independent authors, publishers, and illustrators, recognized Artifacts and Other Stories by Ronna Wineberg, in the category of short stories as a 2024 Distinguished Favorite.

The competition is judged by experts from different aspects of the book industry, including publishers, writers, editors, book cover designers and professional copywriters. Selected IPA Award Winners and Distinguished Favorites are based on overall excellence.

Artifacts and Other Stories by Ronna Wineberg, published by Serving House Books, ISBN: 978-1-947175-56-3, explores the joys and limitations of love and attachment. Desire, longing, marriage, adultery, aging, illness, loss, and fresh starts dominate characters' lives. A middle-aged social worker has an affair and falls in love, uncertain if she will leave her husband. A widower in his late seventies hesitantly embarks on a relationship with a widow he contacts through a personal ad in the local newspaper. A law school teacher facing a contentious divorce tries to create a rapprochement with her ill, frail mother. Vibrant, deeply human characters wrestle with profound changes in their closest relationships and in their own emotional inner worlds. Marriages are sustained or end as secrets are kept or discovered, and as more is revealed, it becomes evident that the past lies just below the surface of the present. Friendship brings comfort, and love appears in unexpected places. The stories portray familiar relationships—between lovers, spouses, parents and children, and friends—as well as the often surprising choices that we may wait a lifetime for, finally to find on
